ORDER¹

Before the Court is the parties' oral notice of settlement stated at today's final pretrial conference. Trial is set to start next week in this wage and hour suit. But the parties have now advised that they have settled all claims. They have thus asked the Court to keep this case open for 60 days for them to file their settlement papers and for Plaintiff to be paid. The parties also have orally consented to the assigned United States Magistrate Judge handling all remaining matters including the Court's review of their settlement.

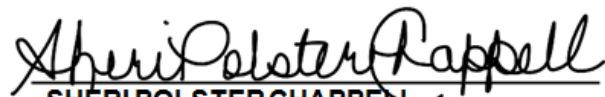

Accordingly, it is now
